ORDER ISSUED UNDER SEC. 144(1) OF CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Roc. C2. 38456/2017

Dated: 08.09.2017

To
All concerned
(through the Superintendent of Police, Ramanathapuram.)

WHEREAS I have received a report, dated 06.09.2017 of the Superintendent of Police, Ramanathapuram for prohibiting the entry of hired vehicles into Ramanathapuram District for the Birth / Death anniversaries of various leaders.

2) Whereas in his report, he has mentioned that in the past during the Birth / Death Anniversaries of various leaders, large number of volunteers visited Ramanathapuram District in hundreds of hired vehicles and made lot of disturbances enroute. All the vehicles passed through the villages belonging to other communities, the volunteers raised several objectionable slogans which instigated persons belonging to other communities. This has resulted in tense atmosphere during Birth / Death Anniversaries of various leaders.

3) Whereas, in the year 2012 due to non compliance of the instructions issued by the district administration, the private hired vehicles travelled in the banned routes were brutally attacked by the people of other community and three youngsters were beaten to death. In yet another incident near Madurai, petrol bomb was hurled at a vehicle hired by the volunteers visiting an event and killed seven persons who travelled in the vehicle. Also, in the year 2014, during the death anniversary of Thiru Immanuel Sekaran, two separate incidents of stone pelting took place in Paramakudi between two communities and seven cases have been registered in the year 2015 and also 13 cases have been registered in the year 2016 for violating the prohibitory order of District Administration.

4) Whereas, to regulate the movement of the vehicles during these events, co-ordination meeting was conducted on 30.08.2017 and the leaders of the community were sensitised properly about the problems. The leaders also agreed to co-operate with the district administration and not to engage hired vehicle for their event.

5) Whereas, the Superintendent of Police, Ramanathapuram has also reported that some of the volunteers may use the hired vehicles for visiting the memorial places of their leaders during the forthcoming Birth / Death Anniversaries.

6) Whereas, in order to maintain law and order, public peace and tranquility in Ramanathapuram District, hired vehicles carrying volunteers from other Districts during the Birth / Death Anniversaries of various leaders to be prohibited. The personal vehicle drivers should carry original driving license and other connected documents.

7) And whereas, the emergent circumstances do not admit the service of notice to the parties concerned, necessitating this order to be passed ex-parte as per proviso laid down under section 144(2) Cr. P.C.,

8) Now, therefore, with a view to maintain law and order, and to avoid disturbance to the public tranquility, I do hereby, promulgate orders under section 144 Cr. P.C., prohibiting any public meeting or assembly of five or more persons or procession, except with the prior permission of the undersigned, for a period of two months from 9th September 2017, and also prohibiting from 9th September to 15th September and 25th October to 31st October 2017, the entry from other Districts of all types of hired vehicles (Tourist Motor Cabs, Tourist Maxi Cabs, All India Tourist Motor Cabs, All India Tourist Maxi Cabs and Omini Buses and any other Tourist vehicles including stage carriages with temporary or special permits or goods carriers and tractors as well as two wheelers and Autorickshaws) carrying volunteers intending to participate in the birth / death anniversaries of various leaders including Immanuel Sekaran death anniversary and Thevar Gurupooja going to be observed in Ramanathapuram District. Carrying Jyothi (Torch) is also prohibited except from within one kilometre of the venue and with prior permission of the undersigned during these events.
